

BOXY PRIVACY POLICY

Effective Date: July 29, 2026

Last Updated: July 29, 2026

Application: Boxy

Owner: JIREH CROWN LLC

1. INTRODUCTION

Welcome to Boxy ("Boxy," "Company," "we," "our," or "us"), a digital inventory and organization application owned and operated by JIREH CROWN LLC.

Boxy is designed to help individuals organize, catalog, search, and manage personal property through QR codes, inventory records, photographs, categories, notes, and related organizational tools.

Protecting the privacy and security of our users is a fundamental objective of Boxy. This Privacy Policy explains how information is collected, processed, stored, used, disclosed, and protected when you access or use the Boxy application and any related services we provide.

This Privacy Policy is intended to promote transparency regarding our information practices while describing your rights and choices concerning your information.

By downloading, installing, accessing, registering for, or otherwise using Boxy, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agree to this Privacy Policy.

If you do not agree with this Privacy Policy, you must discontinue use of Boxy.

2. DEFINITIONS

For purposes of this Privacy Policy, the following definitions apply.

Account means the registered user profile created to access Boxy.

Account Information means information used to identify, authenticate, and manage your Boxy account.

Applicable Law means any applicable federal, state, local, or international law, regulation, or governmental requirement governing privacy, consumer protection, electronic communications, or data protection.

Authentication Provider means a third-party identity service used to verify your identity, including Google, Apple, Facebook, Microsoft, or other supported providers.

Base44 means the backend infrastructure platform used to support the operation and synchronization functionality of Boxy.

Boxy means the mobile application, related services, websites, and software operated by JIREH CROWN LLC.

Inventory Information means any information created, uploaded, entered, or managed by a user within Boxy, including but not limited to:

- QR codes
- Container names
- Storage locations
- Item names
- Categories
- Notes
- Images
- Search tags
- Organizational folders
- User-created metadata

Personal Information means information that identifies, relates to, describes, or could reasonably be associated with an identifiable individual, as defined by applicable law.

Premium Services means subscription-based features available through a paid Boxy membership.

Service Providers means trusted third parties engaged to perform services on behalf of JIREH CROWN LLC necessary for the operation of Boxy.

User, "you," or "your" means any individual who accesses or uses Boxy.

3. SCOPE OF THIS PRIVACY POLICY

This Privacy Policy applies to information processed in connection with:

- The Boxy mobile application.
- Your Boxy account.
- Premium subscription services.
- Customer support communications.
- Authentication services.
- Synchronization services.
- Official websites operated by JIREH CROWN LLC that reference this Privacy Policy.

This Privacy Policy does not apply to:

- Third-party applications or websites that are not owned or controlled by JIREH CROWN LLC.
- Privacy practices of authentication providers such as Google, Apple, Facebook, or Microsoft.
- Privacy practices of Apple App Store or Google Play.
- Information collected directly by third-party payment processors or other independent third parties.

When you interact with third-party providers, your relationship with those providers is governed by their respective privacy policies and terms.

4. ELIGIBILITY AND AGE REQUIREMENTS

Boxy is intended solely for adults who are eighteen (18) years of age or older.

By creating an account or using Boxy, you represent and warrant that:

- You are at least eighteen (18) years of age.
- You possess the legal capacity to enter into binding agreements.
- The information you provide is accurate and complete.
- You will maintain the accuracy of your account information.
- You will comply with this Privacy Policy and the Boxy Terms of Service.

Boxy is not designed for, marketed to, or intended for use by individuals under the age of eighteen (18).

JIREH CROWN LLC does not knowingly permit minors to create Boxy accounts or use the application.

If we become aware that an individual under the age of eighteen has created an account or submitted personal information, we reserve the right, subject to applicable law, to suspend or terminate the account and delete associated information within a commercially reasonable period.

Parents or legal guardians who believe a minor has improperly created a Boxy account may contact us using the support information provided within the application.

We reserve the right to request reasonable verification of age where permitted by applicable law if necessary to protect the integrity and security of the Boxy platform.

Nothing in this Privacy Policy shall be interpreted as creating any obligation for JIREH CROWN LLC to actively monitor or independently verify the age of every user except as required by applicable law.

5. INFORMATION WE COLLECT

Boxy is designed to collect and process only the information reasonably necessary to create your account, provide the Services, synchronize your inventory across your authorized devices, maintain account security, and deliver subscription functionality.

The categories of information we may collect or process include the following.

A. Account Information

When you create a Boxy account, we may collect and process information including:

- Full name or display name (if provided)
- Email address
- Encrypted authentication credentials (when using email/password authentication)
- Unique account identifier
- Authentication provider identifier
- Subscription status
- Account creation date
- Account preferences
- Account settings

This information is used solely for operating your Boxy account.

B. Inventory Information

Inventory Information includes any information you choose to create, upload, or organize within Boxy.

Examples include:

- QR Codes
- Storage container names
- Storage locations
- Inventory items
- Product descriptions
- Categories
- Notes
- Custom labels
- Tags
- Images and photographs
- Search keywords
- Organizational folders
- User-created metadata

Inventory Information is associated with your Boxy account to enable synchronization between devices where you are signed in.

JIREH CROWN LLC does not review your inventory information except where reasonably necessary to investigate security issues, provide customer support requested by you, comply with applicable law, or protect the integrity of the Services.

C. Technical Information

To maintain the reliability, compatibility, and security of Boxy, we may process limited technical information including:

- Device model
- Device manufacturer
- Operating system
- Operating system version
- Application version
- Device language
- Time zone
- Crash diagnostics
- Error logs

- Performance metrics
- Network connection status

This information helps us improve stability, troubleshoot issues, and protect the security of the Services.

D. Subscription Information

If you purchase Boxy Premium, we may receive limited subscription information from the applicable app marketplace, such as:

- Subscription status
- Subscription plan
- Purchase confirmation
- Renewal status
- Expiration date
- Transaction identifiers required for verification

Payment card information is processed by the applicable marketplace and is not stored by JIREH CROWN LLC.

E. Customer Support Information

If you contact customer support, we may process information that you voluntarily provide, including:

- Email address
 - Support requests
 - Attachments
 - Screenshots
 - Diagnostic information you choose to share
 - Communications regarding your account

6. AUTHENTICATION AND ACCOUNT INFORMATION

Creating a Boxy account allows you to securely access your inventory across authorized devices.

Users may create an account using:

- Email and password
- Google
- Apple
- Facebook
- Microsoft

Authentication is performed through the selected authentication provider.

When you choose a third-party authentication provider, that provider may share limited information necessary to identify your account, such as your email address, name, or a unique authentication identifier.

JIREH CROWN LLC receives only the information reasonably necessary to create and manage your Boxy account.

Authentication providers maintain independent privacy policies and terms governing their own services.

Account Security

You are responsible for:

- Maintaining the confidentiality of your credentials.
- Protecting access to your devices.
- Promptly notifying us of suspected unauthorized access.
- Keeping your account information accurate.

We recommend enabling available security features offered by your authentication provider whenever possible.

7. INVENTORY INFORMATION

Inventory Information is the primary content created by users within Boxy.

Your Inventory Information remains associated with your Boxy account and is synchronized between devices that are authenticated using the same account.

Examples include:

- Personal inventory
- Storage container contents
- Photos
- QR Code assignments
- Categories
- Notes
- Search data
- Organization preferences

JIREH CROWN LLC does not sell Inventory Information.

JIREH CROWN LLC does not use Inventory Information for targeted advertising.

JIREH CROWN LLC does not license Inventory Information to advertisers or data brokers.

Inventory Information is processed solely to provide the functionality of Boxy and to maintain synchronization across your authorized devices.

Ownership of Inventory Information

You retain ownership of the Inventory Information that you create within Boxy.

Except as described in this Privacy Policy or required by applicable law, JIREH CROWN LLC does not claim ownership of your Inventory Information.

By using Boxy, you grant JIREH CROWN LLC a limited, non-exclusive license to process your Inventory Information solely for the purpose of operating, maintaining, securing, synchronizing, and improving the Services.

8. DEVICE AND TECHNICAL INFORMATION

To improve the reliability and security of Boxy, certain technical information may be automatically processed.

Examples include:

- Device identifiers
- Operating system information
- Application version
- Diagnostic logs
- Crash reports
- Error reports
- Performance information
- Device language
- Time zone
- Security event logs

This information is used to:

- Diagnose technical issues.
- Improve application performance.
- Maintain compatibility with supported devices.
- Detect abuse or unauthorized activity.
- Protect user accounts.
- Improve overall service quality.

Technical information is not used to build advertising profiles.

9. HOW WE USE YOUR INFORMATION

We process information only for legitimate business purposes necessary to operate Boxy.

These purposes include:

- Creating and maintaining your account.
- Authenticating your identity.
- Synchronizing Inventory Information across authorized devices.
- Delivering subscription benefits.
- Maintaining application security.
- Detecting fraud and unauthorized activity.
- Responding to customer support requests.
- Improving application performance.
- Correcting software defects.
- Developing new features.
- Enforcing our legal agreements.
- Complying with applicable legal obligations.

- Protecting the rights, safety, and property of JIREH CROWN LLC, our users, and others.

We do not sell your personal information.

We do not use your Inventory Information for advertising purposes.

We do not knowingly disclose your Inventory Information to third parties except as necessary to provide the Services, comply with applicable law, enforce our agreements, protect our legal rights, or with your authorization.

JIREH CROWN LLC processes information only to the extent reasonably necessary to provide, maintain, improve, secure, and support the Boxy Services.

10. THIRD-PARTY SERVICES AND BACKEND INFRASTRUCTURE

To provide the functionality of Boxy, JIREH CROWN LLC utilizes carefully selected third-party service providers that perform services on our behalf. These providers are engaged solely to support the operation, security, authentication, synchronization, maintenance, and improvement of the Boxy Services.

Our current backend infrastructure is provided through Base44, which supports the secure operation of the application and synchronization of authorized user data between devices associated with the same Boxy account.

In addition to Base44, Boxy may integrate with trusted third-party services for purposes including, but not limited to:

- User authentication (Google, Apple, Facebook, Microsoft, or email/password authentication)
- Subscription billing through Apple App Store and Google Play
- Application performance monitoring
- Crash reporting
- Security monitoring
- Customer support functionality
- Fraud detection
- Service reliability

Third-party providers process information only to the extent reasonably necessary to perform the services they provide on behalf of JIREH CROWN LLC or in accordance with their own independent terms when acting as authentication or payment providers.

Your use of third-party authentication or payment services is also subject to those providers' respective privacy policies and terms of service.

Nothing in this Privacy Policy grants third-party providers ownership of your Inventory Information.

11. DATA SYNCHRONIZATION

One of Boxy's core features is the ability to synchronize your inventory across multiple devices that are signed into the same Boxy account.

When synchronization is enabled:

- Inventory Information is associated with your authenticated Boxy account.
- Authorized devices connected to the same account may retrieve synchronized Inventory Information.
- Changes made on one authorized device may be reflected on your other authorized devices.
- Synchronization is intended solely to provide continuity of your personal inventory information.

Synchronization does not grant other users access to your Inventory Information unless you intentionally authorize future sharing features that may be introduced by Boxy.

Synchronization services are not intended to function as a permanent archival or backup service. Although we strive to provide reliable synchronization, users remain responsible for maintaining any additional backups they consider appropriate.

JIREH CROWN LLC does not guarantee uninterrupted synchronization or the permanent preservation of all Inventory Information.

12. DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

JIREH CROWN LLC values user privacy and does not sell or rent Personal Information or Inventory Information to advertisers, marketing companies, or data brokers.

We may disclose information only under the following circumstances:

A. Service Providers

To trusted service providers who process information solely to provide services necessary for operating Boxy.

B. Legal Compliance

When required to comply with applicable law, court orders, subpoenas, governmental requests, or other lawful legal processes.

C. Protection of Rights

When reasonably necessary to:

- Protect the rights of JIREH CROWN LLC.
- Protect the security of Boxy.
- Investigate suspected fraud or abuse.
- Enforce our Terms of Service.
- Protect the safety of our users or others.

D. Business Transactions

If JIREH CROWN LLC undergoes a merger, acquisition, corporate restructuring, sale of assets, financing transaction, or similar business event, user information may be transferred as part of that transaction, subject to applicable law.

E. User Authorization

Information may be disclosed if you specifically request or authorize such disclosure.

Except as described in this Privacy Policy, we do not disclose your Inventory Information to third parties.

13. DATA RETENTION

We retain Personal Information and Inventory Information only for as long as reasonably necessary to:

- Operate Boxy.

- Maintain your account.
- Synchronize authorized devices.
- Provide subscription services.
- Resolve disputes.
- Detect fraud.
- Maintain system integrity.
- Enforce legal agreements.
- Comply with applicable legal obligations.

The retention period for specific information depends on:

- The nature of the information.
- The purpose for which it was collected.
- Applicable legal requirements.
- Legitimate business needs.

When your account is permanently deleted, JIREH CROWN LLC will take commercially reasonable steps to delete or anonymize associated information within a reasonable period, unless retention is required by law, necessary to resolve legal disputes, or necessary to protect the security or integrity of the Services.

Residual copies may temporarily remain within encrypted backups maintained for disaster recovery, security, or operational continuity, after which they are routinely overwritten or securely removed in accordance with our internal retention practices.

14. DATA SECURITY

Protecting user information is a priority for JIREH CROWN LLC.

We implement commercially reasonable administrative, technical, and organizational safeguards designed to protect Personal Information and Inventory Information against unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, destruction, or misuse.

Security measures may include:

- Encrypted communications where supported
- Secure authentication processes
- Access controls
- Monitoring for suspicious activity
- Security logging
- Infrastructure protections
- Regular software maintenance

- Incident response procedures

Although we work diligently to safeguard information, no method of electronic transmission, cloud storage, or computer security can guarantee absolute security.

Accordingly, JIREH CROWN LLC cannot guarantee that unauthorized access, security breaches, cyberattacks, hardware failures, software defects, or other unforeseen events will never occur.

Users are responsible for maintaining the security of their own devices, authentication credentials, and account access methods. We strongly encourage users to:

- Use strong, unique passwords.
- Enable multi-factor authentication where available through their authentication provider.
- Keep devices updated with current security patches.
- Protect access to their devices.
- Promptly notify us if they suspect unauthorized access to their Boxy account.

JIREH CROWN LLC continually evaluates and improves its security practices as technology, industry standards, and legal requirements evolve.

15. YOUR PRIVACY RIGHTS

Depending on your location and applicable law, you may have certain rights regarding your Personal Information. Subject to applicable legal limitations, these rights may include:

- The right to know what Personal Information we process.
- The right to request access to your Personal Information.
- The right to request correction of inaccurate Personal Information.
- The right to request deletion of your Personal Information.
- The right to request a copy of certain information in a portable format where applicable.
- The right to withdraw consent where processing is based on consent.
- The right to object to certain processing activities where permitted by law.
- The right to request restriction of certain processing activities where applicable.
- The right to appeal certain privacy decisions where required by law.

These rights are not absolute and may be subject to exceptions under applicable law.

To exercise your rights, please contact JIREH CROWN LLC using the contact information provided in this Privacy Policy. We may request reasonable information to verify your identity before processing your request.

We will not unlawfully discriminate against you for exercising any applicable privacy rights.

16. CALIFORNIA PRIVACY NOTICE

If you are a resident of California, you may have additional rights under the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA), as amended by the California Privacy Rights Act (CPRA), subject to applicable exemptions and limitations.

Depending on applicable law, California residents may have the right to:

- Know the categories of Personal Information collected.
- Know the categories of sources from which Personal Information is collected.
- Know the business purposes for processing Personal Information.
- Request access to certain Personal Information.
- Request correction of inaccurate Personal Information.
- Request deletion of certain Personal Information.
- Obtain information regarding disclosures of Personal Information.
- Limit certain uses of sensitive personal information where applicable.

Boxy does not sell Personal Information as that term is defined under the CCPA/CPRA.

Boxy does not knowingly share Personal Information for cross-context behavioral advertising.

Requests submitted under California privacy laws will be processed in accordance with applicable legal requirements.

17. INTERNATIONAL PRIVACY RIGHTS

If you access Boxy from outside the United States, your Personal Information may be processed in countries where JIREH CROWN LLC or its service providers operate.

Where required by applicable law, we implement appropriate safeguards designed to protect Personal Information transferred across international borders.

Users located in jurisdictions with applicable privacy legislation, including the European Economic Area (EEA), the United Kingdom, or similar jurisdictions, may have rights including:

- Access
- Rectification
- Erasure
- Restriction
- Portability
- Objection
- Withdrawal of consent where applicable

Nothing in this Privacy Policy limits any rights that cannot be waived under applicable law.

18. CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY

Technology, legal requirements, and our services may evolve over time.

Accordingly, JIREH CROWN LLC reserves the right to modify or update this Privacy Policy at any time.

When material changes are made, we may provide notice through:

- The Boxy application
- Our website
- Email (where appropriate)
- Other reasonable methods permitted by applicable law

The updated Privacy Policy becomes effective on the Effective Date identified at the beginning of the document unless otherwise required by law.

Your continued use of Boxy after the effective date of an updated Privacy Policy constitutes your acceptance of the revised Privacy Policy.
